Jerry keeps fighting for kids

By Michael Talley
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

It started in 1966, when a single station in New York aired a telethon to benefit children with muscular dystrophy. It raised something over a million dollars in pledges.

Today, "The Jerry Lewis MDA Telethon" is a behemoth, a Labor Day weekend perennial as familiar as sunburn and ants, only far more popular.

The 1999 telethon will make history with what is billed as the first live multlilingual Webcast over the Internet at www.mdausa.org. That site will provide streaming video in English, Spanish and Japanese.

As always, a stellar cast of musicians and comics has assembled for this year's syndicated event, which airs for 21 1/2 hours starting Sunday, Sept. 5 on ABC. It originates from Television City in Hollywood with live segments from New York, Las Vegas and Chicago.

"I'm grateful to all of these amazing stars who give of their time and talent to help make the telethon a great event to help 'my kids,' " says Lewis, 73, who is expected to carry out his annual duties despite treatment for viral meningitis in Australia in early August.

Returning as anchor for the 32nd year is former "Tonight Show" personality Ed McMahon, who helps preside over a roster of talent that includes comics Martin Short and Bill Maher of ABC's "Politically Incorrect."

Many of Lewis' favorite guests from years past also are slated to appear, including actor Jason Alexander ("Seinfeld"), master mime Marcel Marceau, fractured funnyman Norm Crosby and the eccentric Carrot Top.

The musical lineup includes Sheryl Crow, LeAnn Rimes, Shania Twain, Tom Petty & the Heartbreakers, Diane Schuur, Maureen McGovern, Gary Morris, Lorna Luft, Monica Mancini, and the son of a dear friend of Lewis', Frank Sinatra Jr.

Several actors are planning to make special appearances, including Brendan Fraser ("Gods and Monsters"), "JAG" star David James Elliott, screen veterans Dick Van Dyke and Ricardo Montalban, Kevin Sorbo ("Hercules: The Legendary Journeys"), and his lusty female counterpart, Lucy Lawless ("Xena: Warrior Princess"). "Entertainment Tonight" correspondent Jann Carl, VH1 personality Cynthia Garrett and "Parade" magazine editor Walter Anderson are telethon co-hosts.

The sprawling guest list also includes Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, Larry King, Olympic gold medalist and actress Cathy Rigby, and "hostess with the mostest" Martha Stewart.

The 1999 telethon has plenty to celebrate on the research front, including human safety trials of gene therapy for one form of muscular dystrophy, which are scheduled to begin this month, according to Robert Ross, executive director of the Muscular Dystrophy Association and executive producer of the telethon.

PURON is good
by Sarah
Last summer, a nice man called Bryant came to our house with an air conditioner. He told us it has Puron, which will keep us cool and make the planet happy. He said that pretty soon they're not going to make the old kind of air conditioners anymore, so this one will save us money. And saving money is good.

Carter has two new roles

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

In watching promos for CBS' new "Family Law," I noticed a woman in a dark suit who appears to be Dixie Carter. But I also have seen this same woman in promos for "Ladies Man." Am I going slightly crazy? -Nancy Moore via e-mail.

No, but I can see why you'd think so. At a time when actresses over 40 are having a hard time finding interesting work, Carter, 60, has featured roles on two new CBS shows.

She plays man-hating attorney Randi King in "Family Law," the new dramedy from Paul Haggis ("Due South"). She also appears in the "Ladies Man" pilot as a personal favor to her friend Alfred Molina, the show's leading man.

When "Ladies Man" was picked up by CBS, the show's producers decided that Carter's comic chemistry with co-star Betty White was so priceless, they asked her to try to work some appearances on their show into her weekly "Law" schedule.

Carter, a Southern belle who knows a lovely compliment when she hears one, agreed to make a half dozen or so appearances on "Ladies Man" as her schedule permits.

Pipeline

I could have sworn I spotted Rowan Atkinson ("Mr. Bean") in a tiny part during the James Bond movie "Never Say Never Again," but my father insists it wasn't him. Can you confirm either way? -Stephanie via e-mail.

That was indeed Atkinson in that 1983 movie. He played a character named (ahem!) Small-Fawcett, whom "M" had dispatched to persuade Bond (Sean Connery) to return to action. Bond threw him into the swimming pool and said, "Never again."

You were very close with your answer regarding "Zulu" time on "JAG." Zulu used to be a slang term, military and otherwise, referring to Greenwich Mean Time (GMT). When England changed its time to match the rest of Europe, the time in Greenwich no longer represented the true sun time of the British Isles, so GMT was changed to UTC for Universal Time Coordinated. "Zulu" remains the commonly used slang. -Lewis R. Long, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Thanks to all who wrote to clarify my earlier, brief answer on this topic. Your help is always appreciated.

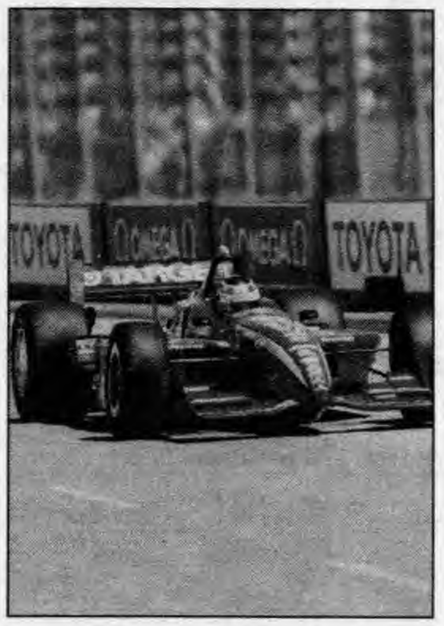
Auto Racing
3 P.M. ON ABC
With five races remaining entering the CART Molson Indy Vancouver, the overall championship is becoming a two-man competition. After 15 races, Juan Montoya, having already won six times this season to break a CART rookie record he held with Nigel Mansell, was leading in the points standings, just ahead of Dario Franchitti. A 26-year-old third-year CART driver from Scotland, Franchitti has two wins to his name in 1999, including the Indy Toronto on July 18.

Movie: Dennis the Menace
6 P.M. ON ABC
This 1993 comedy is yet another heartwarming John Hughes tale of a young mischiefmaker and the universe that eventually finds him adorable. Mason Gamble has the title role in this adaptation of the comic strip, which co-stars Academy Award winner Walter Matthau as the elderly neighbor with a gruff exterior but a gentle heart. Christopher Lloyd and Lea Thompson also star.

Movie: Happy Face Murders
7 P.M. ON SHOW
A 58-year-old mystery buff weaves a tangled tale to pin a murder on her abusive companion, even implicating herself as an accomplice. A savvy detective has her doubts about the pair, especially after a new — and stronger — suspect surfaces. Ann-Margret, Nicholas Campbell and Marg Helgenberger star in this fact-based dark comedy, which is followed by an interview with the woman whose story inspired the TV movie.



Juan Montoya
AUTO RACING

Movie: All the Winters That Have Been
8 P.M. ON CBS
A federal agent who fell for a beautiful half-American Indian artist 20 years earlier vows to win her back. She called off their budding romance when she learned he had come to arrest her brother. Now she's the one with a secret that could destroy their chances of rekindling the affair.

Movie: Drop Zone
8 P.M. ON NBC
A U.S. marshal (Wesley Snipes) learns how to chute first and ask questions later as he attempts to stop a band of sky-diving terrorists. Gary Busey plays the leader of the gang, which is planning to jump into Washington, D.C., and steal valuable Drug Enforcement Administration data. Yancy Butler and Michael Jeter also star in this 1994 crime thriller, which is filled with spectacular aerial stunts.

Biography
9 P.M. ON A&E
"John Ford: An American Vision" remembers the film director whom some of today's most acclaimed moviemakers call their hero. His work ranged from John Wayne Westerns ("Stagecoach," "The Searchers") to adaptations of literary classics ("The Grapes of Wrath") to war pictures — both guts 'n' glory dramas and military training films.

Short's daytime show fuses talk with sketch comedy

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

To continue our in-depth introduction to the season's new talk show contenders, we feature a very familiar face, that of comic Martin Short. A recent discussion with the talented actor reveals how his syndicated show, premiering Sept. 13, will differ from the standard talk fare.

"Think "Letterman" meets "Saturday Night Live," Short explains, when asked to describe his vision for the show. "If David Letterman or Jay Leno have, say, 17 minutes of comedy, they use it for stand-up. My 17 minutes will be sketches, and I'm hoping to have even more time than that because I want to share the spotlight with my talented resident comedy troupe."

Although this will be a "talk" show, it will also be an entertainment show, Short says. "This will not be "Charlie Rose" or "The View," he asserts. "What I do is character comedy ... and we'll have recurring soap operas, our own version of "20/20," a real mix and match, but it will flow."

His fellow players will include Mary Scheer ("Mad TV"), Kevin McDonald from "The Kids in the Hall" and a remarkable actor named Toby Huss.

All of our favorite Short characters, including nerd extraordinaire Ed Grimley, will make appearances.

"I like all my characters," the comedic chameleon claims, adding that one planned sketch will bring Short's synchronized swimming character to the local farmer's market to talk amongst the shoppers.

The Emmy and Tony winner sees his first piece of business as proving to his fans that, just as he can do film, stage and television acting, he can also host a talk show. "My fan base can smell right away if I should be doing talk, and I want the show to feel like I should be doing it, not like 'Hmm, this seems odd,' " he says.

Martin Short

The Canada native certainly is no stranger to the medium. It only took one season on NBC's "Saturday Night Live" for America to recognize his improvisational genius, musical talents and versatility.

Of his many film roles, perhaps his most memorable was Franck Eggelhoffer, the wedding planner in the "Father of the Bride" movies.

His recent Tony Award-winning performance on Broadway in "Little Me" was just one of many theater roles, and he received accolades for his work in the NBC miniseries "Merlin" and the TV movie "Alice in Wonderland."

What will happen to his acting career while he's working his own talk show? "I don't think you can do both at once," Short concludes. "But it's fascinating how new (the talk show) all feels. Nothing is as exciting as the first time you do it ... a play, a movie — sex."

The Christopher Lowell Show
8 A.M. ON DISC

The flamboyant host of Discovery's "Interior Motives" gives fans an eight-hour marathon sneak preview of his latest series. This new incarnation promises more segments on entertaining and gardening, as well as celebrity visits. But don't worry, decorating devotees: Judging from the titles of the first few episodes — "Let There Be Light," "Every Inch Counts," "Paint Is Cheap" — interior design tips will continue to be a mainstay. The new series officially joins Discovery's lineup on Sept. 27.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Ron Howard: Hollywood's Favorite Son" profiles the adorable child star who grew up to be one of filmdom's most respected directors. The star-studded hour is full of interviews with Howard's family members, and colleagues from both sides of the camera, including director George Lucas ("American Graffiti"), Andy Griffith and Don Knotts ("The Andy Griffith Show"), Henry Winkler ("Happy Days"), and Tom Cruise.

Movie: ATF
8 P.M. ON ABC

Two female federal agents are forced to set aside their different attitudes and approaches and cooperate when a militant group threatens a takeover of the United States. That's easier said than done for one of the women, who's carrying some serious emotional baggage from the Branch Davidian standoff in Waco, Texas. Amy Brenneman ("NYPD Blue") and Kathy Baker ("Picket Fences") star.

LAW & ORDER

Ally McBeal
8 P.M. ON FOX

If Oprah can play a therapist on TV (remember the coming-out episode of "Ellen"?), then Rosie can, too. Rosie O'Donnell guest stars as a marriage counselor trying to help Billy and Georgia (Gil Bellows, Courtney Thorne-Smith) repair their troubled union. A birthday present from Nelle (Portia de Rossi) boosts Cage's (Peter MacNicol) mood. A fretful Elaine (Jane Krakowski) prepares for a dance contest in the encore of "Let's Dance." Calista Flockhart also stars.

Law & Order
8 P.M. ON NBC

When a mail carrier is murdered and a woman is tortured nearly to death, Briscoe and Curtis (Jerry Orbach, Benjamin Bratt) arrest a suspected serial killer who's more than willing to confess to the crimes. There's just one complication: He's innocent.

Becker
8:30 P.M. ON CBS

When John's (Ted Danson) colleagues meet his estranged father, Fred (guest star Dick Van Dyke), they have a hard time believing the two are related. The jolly Fred is the exact opposite of his standoffish son, whose demeanor goes from cool to frigid when his dad shows up.

Two Guys, a Girl and a Pizza Place

Berg (Ryan Reynolds) is thrilled to be working as a ringside doctor in professional boxing. But even a dream job has its dark side, as he discovers when he has to tell a washed-up fighter to hang up his gloves. Champion boxer Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini guest stars as himself in the encore of "Two Guys, a Girl and a Fighter." Richard Ruccolo also stars.

Cosby
7 P.M. ON CBS

When Erica and Darien (T'Keyah Crystal Keymah, Darien Sills-Evans) announce their engagement, Hilton and Ruth (Bill Cosby, Phylicia Rashad) are as happy for themselves as for their daughter; finally, the house will be a little less crowded. Then Erica drops a bombshell: The younger couple wants to live with the Lucases to save money.

Beverly Hills, 90210
7 P.M. ON FOX

As the 10th season opens, the gang rallies around Kelly (Jennie Garth) as she faces the possible consequences — including jail — of shooting her rapist. "The Phantom Menace" also includes the revelation of a secret and news of someone's impending fatherhood.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

At age 6, she almost out-cuted the adorable title character in "E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial." But before she hit her teens, she had a grown-up's taste for the Hollywood fast lane of parties, booze and drugs. "Drew Barrymore: Out From Under" traces the up-and-down life of the young actress who conquered her addictions and narrowly escaped being typecast as a teen tramp ("Poison Ivy," "The Amy Fisher Story") before emerging as a full-fledged adult star. Musician David Crosby, a family friend, is among the interviewees in this profile.

Anne Hathaway
GET REAL

Movie: Philadelphia
7:30 P.M. ON CBS

Tom Hanks stars in this gripping 1993 drama as a gay attorney fired from a big Philadelphia law firm because he has AIDS. He sues with the help of the only lawyer who'll take his case: a seedy ambulance-chaser (Denzel Washington) who doesn't care much for gays. Hanks won the best actor Academy Award, and Bruce Springsteen's "Streets of Philadelphia" took home the Oscar for best song.

Get Real
8 P.M. ON FOX

Expect a light touch in this new family drama created by Clyde Phillips ("Suddenly Susan," "Parker Lewis Can't Lose"). Jon Tenney and Debrah Farentino play Mitch and Mary Green, a '90s couple trying to keep their love alive amid the everyday stresses of raising three teenagers. In "Pilot," eldest daughter Meghan (Anne Hathaway) drops a bombshell about her future plans.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: The Grapes of Wrath
7 P.M. ON AMC

The fact that Henry Fonda didn't win an Oscar for his work in this 1940 drama is almost as criminal as the injustices committed against the bedraggled migrant laborers of the story. Even his most devoted fans forget they're watching Fonda, so thoroughly does he transform himself into the bloody-but-unbowed Tom Joad. The film, based on John Steinbeck's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, did earn two Oscars: for best supporting actress (Jane Darwell as Ma Joad) and best director (John Ford).

The 1999 MTV Video Music Awards
7 P.M. ON MTV

New York's Metropolitan Opera House is the unlikely setting for this celebration of rock, pop and hip-hop videos. Korn's "Freak on a Leash" could be the big winner this year, with nominations in nine categories. Following are Ricky Martin's "Livin' La Vida Loca," TLC's "No Scrubs," and Will Smith's "Wild Wild West" and "Miami" with six each. Comic Chris Rock hosts the festivities. The much-talked-about live commercials from a major automaker are slated to make their debut during this telecast.

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

The bad news: Diego (Bruno Campos) has lost his job and could be deported. The good news: He's received another offer. More bad news: It's in Los Angeles. More good news: He wants Jesse (Christina Applegate) to join him. But Jesse has just received a scholarship to nursing school, so she must decide between her dream man and her dream career.

The Road to Rapture
8 P.M. ON A&E

Thousands of people aren't worried about the "millennium bug"; they plan to be in heaven when Jan. 1, 2000, rolls around. It's called the Rapture, when many believe that the righteous will be taken en masse to their reward, leaving Earth in chaos until the Second Coming of Christ.

Nightline in Primetime
9 P.M. ON ABC

With science, anything is possible ... or is it? The penultimate installment of "Brave New World" examines a sad but true fact about life in the age of technology: Humans have limits. Some accomplishments are only possible with pain and sacrifice, and some are just plain impossible. Ted Koppel anchors the eight-part series, which concludes next Thursday.

ER
9 P.M. ON NBC

Dr. Carter (Noah Wyle) makes a terrible discovery about a group of young prom-goers injured in an auto accident: Some of their parents had provided them with alcohol. Dr. Greene (Anthony Edwards) wonders if the two FBI men hanging around the hospital have anything to do with the stripper (guest star Sandra Taylor) whom he's treating for a gunshot wound.

Friday's Best Bets

Providence

7 P.M. ON NBC

Sydney (Melina Kanakaredes) tries to help a gardener (guest star Tim Ransom) who she suspects is being robbed of his health by pesticides. Meanwhile, she's being robbed of her patience by the continued unwelcome advances of a mob boss' son (guest star David Lee Smith). Joanie (Paula Cale) worries about the impending opening of her shop and her boyfriend's lack of interest in the baby in the encore of "Two to Tango."

Movie: Escape From Mars

7 P.M. ON UPN

An architect, a doctor, a Russian cosmonaut and two other brave souls blast off for Mars on a mission to make the planet inhabitable for humans. But trouble strikes along the way when a disaster claims one life and jeopardizes the oxygen and fuel supply for the survivors.

Movie: Home Fries

7 P.M. ON MAX

A pretty, pregnant clerk at a fast-food establishment falls for a new co-worker who turns out to be the stepson of her baby's recently deceased father. What she doesn't know is that the young man had a hand in his stepdad's death, and Mom put him up to it. Drew Barrymore and Luke Wilson star.

Kids Say the Darndest Things

7:30 P.M. ON CBS

Host Bill Cosby takes a turn for the verse in this encore from April. He pens a nonsensical poem ("Life is a nose filled with bird eggs" is a typical line) and dispatches two youngsters to explain it to a magazine publisher. While they actually give the poem an intelligent interpretation, they still have to break the news to Cosby that the publisher hates it. Viewers also meet a 4-year-old who knows his numbers and also knows something about superstition: He skips 13 when he counts.

KIDS SAY THE DARNDEST THINGS

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

8 P.M. ON ABC

It's one of the great experiences of a teen-age girl's life: the moment when the boy she adores finally says the L word. And poor Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) is dumbstruck ... literally. She's put a silence spell on herself, so when Harvey (Nate Richert) tells her, "I love you," she can't respond in kind. Zelda (Beth Broderick) is hoping Mr. Kraft (Martin Mull) will break his silence and pop the question.

L.A. Detectives

8 P.M. ON A&E

In this encore from March, Los Angeles County sheriff's detectives see no signs of foul play in the death of a businessman whose body is found in a remote spot outside the city. But an autopsy reveals there's more to this death than meets the eye. A detective investigating a gang-related assault achieves something almost unheard of when dealing with gangs: He gets the victims to name names. Getting his suspects to confess, however, isn't so easy.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

U.S. Open Tennis

10 A.M. ON CBS

The women's champion will be crowned while the men's draw will dwindle to the final two during eight hours of U.S. Open Tennis coverage. Patrick Rafter and Mark Philippoussis survived a draining September sun, defeating Pete Sampras and Carlos Moya, respectively, to form an all-Australian final last year. Sandwiched between the men's action is the women's final, where Lindsay Davenport finally shed the label of Grand Slam also-ran a year ago, beating defending champion Martina Hingis.

Early Edition

7 P.M. ON CBS

In "Play It Again Sammo," an interseries crossover that premiered during (of course!) May sweeps, Sammo Law's (Sammo Hung, "Martial Law") search for a stolen Chinese antique brings him to Chicago, where the piece has found its way into a sculpture purchased by Gary (Kyle Chandler). When tomorrow's paper reports the thief and his niece will be killed, Gary and Sammo team up to save them. Sammo also helps Gary prevent a serious injury to country singer Martina McBride (guest starring as herself).

National Geographic

7 P.M. ON NBC

An undersea expedition attempts to unlock the secrets of a sunken World War II Japanese sub in "Search for Submarine I-52." The vessel was on its way to German-occupied France when Allied planes sent it to its grave in 1944. Its exact location somewhere in the Atlantic Ocean remained a mystery for 50 years. The expedition holds the promise of a treasure hunt, as the sub is believed to have been carrying gold.

Movie: Storm

7 P.M. ON FAM

A maverick meteorologist who has developed a technique for controlling storms is recruited by the government for a top-secret project. By the time he realizes his new colleagues have deadly plans for the technology, a killer hurricane that they'd sent toward Mexico changes course and pummels Los Angeles. Luke Perry, Martin Sheen and Alexandra Powers star in this action-packed new disaster thriller.

Movie: Dirty Dancing

7:05 P.M. ON TBS

Sixties hits, stirring original songs and eye-popping dance moves made this 1987 drama a hit with audiences. Jennifer Grey stars as the naive teenager who has the time of her life with a hunky dance instructor (Patrick Swayze) at a resort in the Catskills.

8 P.M. ON NBC

Profiler

In the finale from last season, Sam (Ally Walker) is called away from the trial of Jack of All Trades (guest star Mark Rolston) to investigate a series of murders at a Mexican factory. While she's fighting resistance from authorities on both sides of the border, the trial takes an unexpected turn, forcing Sam into a confrontation.
